

About Back Bobby

Black Bobby is a rapper, a writer with bylines in the Boston Globe, HuffPost & Hypervocal and social entrepreneur. He co-founded the political action tank United Leaders his senior year at Tufts University and ran the organization for six years. He then left United Leaders to finish his graduate degree at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government. After graduating from Harvard, Larry worked as a consultant at the Monitor Group before leaving to move to Miami and co-found a record label where he was an artist and managed the label's social media, website and outreach efforts. He has released six solo projects to critical acclaim and has performed all over South Florida, in DC (his hometown) at the Cake & Kisses party and in NYC. In Miami he opened for Mos Def & Talib Kweli (Black Star) at the historic Fillmore on South Beach for 2011's Rock the Bells. He has also opened for Pusha T (at Bardot), NORE (at Vagabond) and AZ & Cormega (at White Room). He has performed at Art Basel twice as well as Sweat Records' SWEATSTOCK, where he has also served as the host. His music has been written about in NBC Miami, the Miami New Times, DC to BC, Hipster Overkill, Rock the Disco, For the DMV Only, Beached Miami, Antisteez, TBD- Washington, DC and others and has been played on several radio stations including #1 college radio station in the nation, WVUM. Bobby recently relaunched his music career in Atlanta where you can find him performing around town, most recently at 529 and Smith's Olde Bar.
